Employee Satisfaction: A Key to Success

Thursday, June 26, 2008

1:00 PM – 2:00 PM EDT

This webinar is generously sponsored by SysInformation, Inc

COURSE DESCRIPTION

It is well known that employee satisfaction depends on factors other than compensation. These factors include: the right fit for the job, timely performance evaluation and management, ongoing opportunities for career development within the workplace, loans and grants for professional study, a bonus and promotion program, communication from superiors at various levels, and training and development that deals with leadership issues.

This session will include effective strategies to hire the right people for the right job, including pre-hire screening tools, an orientation program which includes the CEO, COO, CMO and the CHRO, a program that provides career development opportunities, successful performance management, and finally the types of communication that are necessary for the organization to grow by empowering employees.

You will learn to:

- Hire the right people for the right job.
- Perform successful performance management.
- Participate in the communication cascade that includes the strategic and operational plan of the organization.
